By Evening Herald Leased Wire
Milwaukee, Wis., Dec. 27.—Tom Andrews, the Milwaukee sport writer and his promoter, left today for New Orleans to see if he could straighten out the muddle over the proposed Willard-Pulton bout at New Orleans during Mardi Gras week.

Andrews recently signed Willard and Fulton to the bout, acting as agent for Tortorich and partner of the New Orleans promoters. Later it was announced that Burns and Tortorich would substitute Frank Moran for Fulton.

"I can't understand the recent talk in affairs," said Andrews. "I'm going south to see if I can't get the whole straightened out."

Andrews was to meet Tom Jones, manager of Willard, at Chicago. Jones will go south with him.

A number of negroes were disarmed, quiet prevailed and although company F of the state militia was held ready for duty, there apparently was little chance that the troops would be needed.

movement. Never before have our people so fully realized the significance of the words 'Peace' and 'Fraternity.'

Never have the need and bent of international cooperation in every form of human activity been so evident as they are today.

The path of opportunity lies plain before us Americans. The government and people of every republic should strive to inspire in others confidence and cooperation by exhibiting integrity of purpose and equity in action. Let us as members of this congress, therefore, meet together on the plane of common interests and together seek the common good. Whatever makes for the common good, whatever demands united effort is a fit subject for applied Pan-Americanism. Fraternal helpfulness is the keynote to the arch. Its pillars are faith and justice.

"In this great movement this congress will, I believe, play an exalted part. You gentlemen represent powerful intellectual forces in your respective countries. Together you represent the enlightened thought of the continent. The policy of Pan-Americanism is practical. It finds the American spirit in ideal. It finds its source and being in the minds of thinking men. It is the offspring of the best, the noblest conception of international obligation."

"With all earnestness, therefore, I commend to you, gentlemen, the thought of the American republics, twenty-one sovereign and independent nations, bound together by faith and justice, and firmly cemented by a sympathy which knows no superior or inferior, but which recognizes only equality and fraternity."
